

1. Write short answers (suitable answers given in the list):

- a) First gear-driven calculating machine - Step Reckoner
- b) John Napier invented - Logarithms
- c) Using the concept of Napier's bones, William Oughtred in England invented the - Slide rule
- d) Another name for Leibniz's Wheel - Calculating clock
- e) Mechanical Loom was invented by - Joseph Jacquard

2. Match:

- a) Analytical engine - Blaise Pascal
- b) Tabulating machine - Charles Babbage
- c) Pascaline - Howard Aikens
- d) Difference engine - Herman Hollerith
- e) Mark 1 - (not fully matched in the text)

3. Answers:

- a) The Analytical Engine had 2 parts called "Mill" and "Store." They represent the processing unit and memory, respectively.
- b) The earliest counting way of humans was only up to 10.
- c) Three natural items humans used for counting earlier: fingers, stones, shells (examples).
- d) Gottfried Wilhelm Leibniz invented the binary number system and developed gear-driven calculating machines.

4. Fill in the blanks

- a) The first all-electronic computer was the ENIAC.
- b) Automatic Sequence Controlled Calculator is popularly known as the Mark I.
- c) The first mechanical calculator was the Pascaline.
- d) Grace Hopper was one of the primary programmers for Mark 1.
- e) Analytical Engine, which was designed by Charles Babbage, was never finished.

5. Define the following words:

- the power of ten – powers of 10 (e.g., 10, 100, 1000)
- labour intensive – requiring much manual work
- abridged – shortened, condensed
- to reckon – to calculate or consider
- cranking – turning by hand using a crank
- polynomial – an algebraic expression with multiple terms
- punchcard – a card with holes used for data input
- domestic – relating to home or internal affairs
- census – population count
- grid – network or lattice