

Statements (True/False/Not Given):

1. E-commerce has been growing steadily since the 1980s. - FALSE (It started in the 1990s)
2. Global e-commerce sales are expected to exceed 6 trillion by 2022. - TRUE (Projected to reach 6.54 trillion by 2022)
3. Small businesses benefit from e-commerce by being able to reach a wider customer base. - TRUE
4. All major corporations have fully transitioned to e-commerce models. - NOT GIVEN
5. Cybersecurity is a significant concern for e-commerce businesses. - TRUE
6. Virtual reality technology is currently widely used in online shopping. - FALSE (Expected to enhance the experience in the future)
7. The COVID-19 pandemic has led to a permanent shift towards online shopping for all consumers. - NOT GIVEN

Expressions Matching Descriptions:

8. Created fairer conditions where smaller and larger businesses can compete more equally - "leveled the playing field"
9. Very rapid and accelerating increase, often doubling or expanding at a fast rate - "exponential growth"
10. Strong and effective protections designed to keep data and systems safe - "robust security measures"
11. Completely changed the overall environment and structure of the business world - "fundamentally altered the business landscape"
12. Remove limitations caused by physical distance, allowing global access - "eliminate geographical barriers"
13. Completely transformed how companies function and conduct their activities - "reshaping traditional business models"
14. Improve the quality, convenience, or enjoyment of shopping on the internet - "enhance the online shopping experience"

Short Comment on E-commerce (50-80 words) using the expressions:

E-commerce has brought an exponential growth in the global marketplace by fundamentally altering the business landscape. It has leveled the playing field, eliminating geographical barriers and reshaping traditional business models. The adoption of robust security measures is critical to protect consumer data while emerging technologies continue to enhance the online shopping experience. Overall, e-commerce creates fairer conditions for all businesses and promises ongoing innovation and convenience for shoppers worldwide.